

Reference for Allan Ross MacKenzie

Dear Sir / Madam.

I have known Allan for just over a year. He has been and still is my English teacher. I find his approach to teaching quite refreshing and progressive. His methodology is simple and effective and totally dynamic. Allan's knowledge of subjects outside the academic sphere is extensive, and he is able to extend my own limited vocabulary and through time is able to make me more fluent in my application of English within my everyday life.

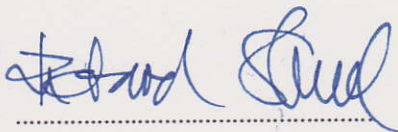

Allan's use of the Calman method has enabled me to feel more confident with my English.

Allan has also a unique talent that I find rare in a teacher; he is sensitive to my needs and specific requirements. This I believe is the essential ingredient for his continued success.

I must also say, that I like his humorous approach to learning too.

I fully recommend him and further recommend his exemplary approach towards the students.

I also fully recommend him to your company.
